WESTERLY FIREMEN'S MEMORIAL DAY

Special Services Held Sunday at River Bend-Degree for Rev. C. A. Burdick-Edward McKnight Dead-Patrolman Henry Chase Detailed to Watch Hill.

Firemen's Memorial Sunday was observed yesterday by the members of the Westerly fire department and the vesteran firemen. Headed by the Westerly fire police and the decident of a minable building to contain the toilets. This has been a serious problem for the town fathers to solve, as no one would come forward and give the use of the land for the content of the Frat Baptist church, and Rev. E. J. Curry, pastor of the Methodist church. The graves of the deceased firemen were decorated with flowers.

The death of Edward McKnight, one of Pawcatuck's best known citizens, occurred early Sunday morning at his home, 9 Noyes avenue. He had been failing for some time. Mr. McKnight served on the board of selectmen in the town of Stonington and always took an active part in politics and the welfare of the town. He was a member of the Catholic Benevolent legion. He is survived by a widow and three children, Miss Jane McKnight of Pawcatuck, Mrs. George McKnight of Myscanuck, Mrs. George McKnight of Paw-catuck, Mrs. George McKnight of Mys-tic, James H. McKnight of Providence, and John A. McKnight of Providence. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Michael's enthusiasm of the vast crowd grew as enthusiasm of the vast crowd grew as the balloting proceeded, and when the count was announced the states of Massachusetts, Mississippi, Montana, New Jersey, North Carolina, Penn-sylvania, Tennessee and Utah, which had furnished the small quota of votes for Mr. Roosevelt, set speed record in the effort to leap on the band wagon and make the nomination unanimous.

JUSTICE HUGHES SENDS

LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE Has Resigned His Judicial Office Ready for the Campaign.

Washington, June 11 .- Fully indors ng the platform you have adopted," Charles Evans Hughes yesterday afternoon telegraphed to Senator Warren G. Harding, chairman of the republican national convention at Chienter the cago, that he accepted the presidential nomination.

The telegram stated that Mr. Hughes servedly to the campaign. Mr. Hughes message follows:

message follows:

"Mr. Chairman and Delegates:—I have not desired the nomination. I have wished to remain on the bench. But in this critical period in our national history I recognize that it is your right to summon and that it is my paramount duty to respond. You speak at a time of national exigency transcending merely partisan considerations. You voice the demand for a dominant, thoroughgoing Americanism, with firm protective upbuilding policies essential to our peace and se-vice of our country. Therefore I accept the nomination. Firm for Americanism.

"I stand for the firm and unflinching maintenance of all the rights of American citizens on land or sea. I neither impugn motives nor underestimate difficulties. But it is most respectably true that in our foreign relations we have suffered in columnia. lations we have suffered incalculably from the weak and vacillating course which has been taken with regard to Mexico—a course iamentably wrong with regard to both our rights and our duties. We interfered without consistency, and while seeking to dictate when we were not concerned we utterly failed to appreciate and discharge our plain duty to our own citizens.

"At the outset of the administration the high responsibilities of our diplo-matic intercourse with foreign nations were subordinated to a conception of partisan requirements and we present ed to the world a humiliating specta-cie of ineptitude. Belated efforts have not availed to recover the influence and prestige so unfortunately sacri-ficed and brave words have been strip-ped of their force by indecision.

To "Restore Diplomacy to Its Best

"I desire to see our diplomacy re-stored to its best standard and to have these advanced, to have no sachad resigned his judicial office and rifices of national interest to partisan expediences, to have the first ability of the country always at its command

Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist church, was given the honorary degree of doctor of divinity in recognition of his work in the Christian ministry at the commencement of Alfred university last Thursday. Dr. Burdick has been a successful worker in the ministry for 11 years, having served as pastor in West. Edmeston, N. Y., four years, Erockfield, N. Y., 19 years, Ashaway, R. I., four years, and Westerly 13 years. He has been editor of The Pulpit and has written numerous articles for religious publications.

The death of Edward McKnight, one of Pawcatuck's best known citizens, occurred early Sunday morning at his home, 9 Noyes avenue. He had been falling for some time. Mr. McKnight served on the board of selectmen in the town of Stonington and always took an active part in politics and the

The members of Westerly lodge, No. 678, B. P. O. E., will observe Flag day with exercises to be held Wednesday in the town hall on Bread street at 7.30 o'clock. A patriotic address will be delivered by Albert B. West of Providence. There will be exercises by the officers of the lodge. There will be no admission charged and the public is invited to attend.

The body of George Francis McCormick, which was discovered in the covered in New London on Friday, was brought to Westerly Saturday. Burial was held Saturday morning in St. Michael's new cemetery. Mr. McCormick was 22 years of age and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McCormick of Spring street. For several years he was employed on the farm of Fernando Wheeler and previous to his death watch Hill patrol during the summer season. Officer Chase has been on the ground for three years and is well acquainted with the people and conditions at the hill. William Culley, who has been a member of the council for several years and retired in June, applied for the appointment as Watch Hill policeman, but instead was appointed as an extra officer to assist Chief Brown on the regular Westerly force. Arrangements have been made do Wheeler and previous to his death was employed in Mystic by the Stan-dard Oil company. He is survived by
